Continuation of 3. NOTE: Newly added limitations require further consideration and/or search because they are diffent in scope from similar limitations in the allowed claims. For example, claims 1 and 19 require a "reply including a first address." The admended claim does not require a reply. Nor does it require an address to be transmitted. It merely requires transmission of a message identifying the location. Claim 23 requires address comparison, which is not required in the amended claim.
